The Grange

The perfect blend of functionality and comfort, offering spaces for every member of the family to enjoy and utilize. From the practicality of the spacious kitchen and butler's pantry to the relaxation provided by the outdoor room, every aspect of the design seems tailored to enhance the family's lifestyle.

The inclusion of the large rumpus room recognizes the needs of growing teenagers, giving them a dedicated space to socialize and unwind. And the double garage with workshop provides a versatile area for additional storage or projects.
